

Lavone A. Luebe

April 27, 1925 - July 12, 2013

PIERCE -- Services for Lavone A. Luebe, 88, of Lincoln will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at Stonacek Memorial Chapel in Pierce. The Rev. Penny Greer will officiate with burial in St. John's Lutheran Cemetery, rural Pierce. Visitation will be 5-7 p.m. Monday. She died Friday, July 12, 2013, at Waterford Assisted Living in Lincoln. The daughter of Edmund and Mabel (Luhr) Hoefener was born April 27, 1925, at Pierce. She was baptized and confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church, Pierce. She graduated from Pierce High School in 1942. She was married to Aaron Meyer on Dec. 7, 1947. Aaron passed away Feb. 14, 1973. She married Vernon Luebe on March 24, 1974. He passed away later on. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, Pierce. Lavone worked for the Selective Service for 30 years, 27 years here in Pierce County. She moved to Lincoln in 1996. Survivors include son Greg Meyer of Elmwood and granddaughter Paige Katherine Meyer of Elmwood. She was preceded in death by parents Edmund and Mabel; one brother, Melvin; one sister, Anita Carney; both husbands, Aaron Meyer and Vernon Luebe. Organist will be Shirley Hetrick and soloist Rick Higgins with "Amazing Grace", "How Great Thou Art." Casket bearers will be Steve Chilvers, Jim Prahl, Ron Eddy, Chuck Echternacht, Larry Hoefener, Chris Koph.

Tribute Wall

“ Lavone A. Luebe

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM