“ Lori was a very pretty girl and a lovely woman. She was the spitting image of her Mom. She has left the world much too soon.

Lori was the youngest of Loren and Bonnie's children and, therefore, a mite spoiled. :) In Chicago, we used to visit with them at their apartment. We would watch scary films on Friday nights. We took the dogs for walks and played in the alley and the area between two buildings that made a neat courtyard.

After they moved to Foster, we spent time together while we were visiting Gramma. We went out to cousin Anton Synovec's farm and managed to lose one of our dolls in the melon patch. Thankfully, it was later found. when it was time for my family to go back to Chicago, Lori and I cried and wished that I could stay there with them.

Lori was very shy. I wish that we had been able to speak more together. I will miss her.

God be with her family.
