“ Ron and Anissa, Today I found a Christmas letter written when you had gone to Alaska. She had such a great way with words. Her handwriting was so beautiful just like her. I miss her so very much. Glad I have so many great memories of Louise. Thanks for sharing her with me as a good friend. Thinking about you both in the days ahead.
God be with you.

“ Ron and Anissa I am so sorry about the loss of Louise. You have my deepest sympathy and may God give you strength to get you through the sad days that lie ahead. Louise was such a wonderful friend, mother, wife and I was glad to have known her over most of my lifetime. She will really be missed by so many of us.

“ Louise was a schoolmate at our District #20 one room school. I was a little kid and she was a big kid but she was always nice to me. I enjoyed visiting her in 2001 when I was writing the book about one room school life. Her scrapbook was a great resource. Keep it well. It is a treasure, as was Louise.

“ I am a lifetime friend of Ron, Gary Lukert. I and my wife, Vel, first met Louise when they were married. While our visits with Ron and Louise were very limited, I do recall very well that Louise and my wife, Vel, seemed to really get along great. My impressions of Louise are very positive. Vel & I were very saddened to hear of Louise's severe injuries and passing. We have the greatest sympathy for Ron, Anisa...and all family of Louise and Ron...and their friends, It is so sad when anyone is taken so soon. THE BEST TO YOU RON, ANISSA and your families and friends.

“ Although I didn't keep in touch with Louise for many years, I am grateful for knowing her these past few weeks as she struggled in the hospital. She gave me opportunity to know her husband Ron better and to become a cousin to their daughter Anisa. Louise fought a brave fight during her time in the hospital and helped me realize how fragile and precious life is. She was a strong lady and will be missed in her Johnson family.
