

Lurene M. Krueger

October 22, 1940 - December 30, 2012

FOSTER -- Services for Lurene M. Krueger, 72, of Foster will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at Trinity Lutheran Church, Foster, with burial in Hillcrest Memorial Park Cemetery, Norfolk. Visitation will be 6-8 p.m. Wednesday at Stonacek Memorial Chapel, Pierce. The Rev. Jerome Leckband will officiate. She died Sunday, Dec. 30, 2012, at Faith Regional Health Services. She was born Oct. 22, 1940, at home, rural Pierce, to Lawrence and Clara (Delbridge) Miller. She was baptized June 20, 1943, at Trinity Lutheran Church, Foster, and confirmed June 23, 1957, at Trinity Lutheran Church, Foster. She graduated from Pierce High School in 1958, attended college at Wayne State College for one year and taught in rural Pierce County School Districts 23, 14R, 55 and ESU 8. She married Gene Frank Krueger Dec. 27, 1959, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Foster. The couple farmed their family farm at rural Foster until Lurene's death. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church of Foster, served 17 years as Ladies Aid LWML secretary, Sunday school teacher, served as historian and an advocate for Thrivent Services for Trinity Lutheran Church, Foster. Survivors are four children, Tony and wife Diana Krueger of Pierce, Tim and wife Doris Krueger of rural Foster, Larry and wife Norma Krueger of rural Foster and Mark and wife Laura Krueger of rural Hoskins; nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild; one sister, Ella Marie and husband Joe Masten of Lexington; two brothers, Leonard and wife Janet Miller of Newcastle and Lawren and wife Darlene Miller of rural Norfolk. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lawrence and Clara Miller, and husband Gene Aug. 13, 1998. Organist will be Mrs. Kristi Leckband with congregational hymns "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "Rock of Ages," "Amazing Grace." Casket bearers are Travis Krueger, Adam Krueger, Colby Krueger, Noah Krueger, Garrett Mozak, Randy Ebel. Honorary casket bearers are Jessica Mozak, Jennifer Krueger, Lindsay Krueger, Sara Krueger, Abby Krueger, Sullivan Krueger, Jessica Krueger.

Tribute Wall

“ Lurene M. Krueger

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM