Sometimes, it's hard to find closure
With doors yet open such as of anew
Like, "If only I'd but spoken how I loved her
When she turned each stormy sky unto blue"

It's truly, at times, it's hard to find closure
When we have such deep void felt still within
From mind thoughts swirling in perpetual motion
Before, heading into uncontrollable talisman

Yet, we see God's plan, in life, to close your Sparkling eyes as to open them once again
