

Margaret I. Weyhrich

January 5, 1925 - April 18, 2011

Services for Margaret I. Weyhrich, 86, of Randolph will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday at St. John's Lutheran Church here with burial in Rose Hill Cemetery at McLean. Visitation will be 5-8 p.m. Thursday at Stonacek Memorial Chapel in Osmond. She died Monday, April 18, 2011, at her home. Margaret was born January 5, 1925, at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to John and Elizabeth (Kint) Shindeldecker. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Randolph. Margaret attended Harrisburg Public School to the 8th grade. She was married December 23, 1947 to the late Marvin E. Weyhrich at Hagerstown, Maryland. Marvin died in October 1993. For 27 years Margaret and Marvin owned and operated Weyhrich Skelly Service Station in Randolph, until 1987. Later, Margaret was a Cook at Jerry's Hilltop for 17 years. She retired in 2005. She enjoyed playing video games, quilting, playing cards, and riding her scooter around Randolph. She was a member of the Ladies Aid and Quilters Guild. Survivors are two sons, Bob Weyhrich of Lincoln, Raymond Weyhrich of Randolph; three Grandchildren; one great-grandchild; one sister Whitey Schuelley of Waynesboro, Pennsylvania; three nieces; Sister-in-law Shirley Kint of Randolph. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Marvin, son Darrell, and nine siblings. Officiating is Reverend Derrick Fallon. Music is by organist Lorene Patent. Hymns include "How Great Thou Art" , "Old Rugged Cross." , "My Hope Is Built On Nothing Less." Casket bearers are Tim Kint, Frank Wortman, Doug Albers, Brad Albers, Charles Peterson, and Jerry Winkelbauer.

Tribute Wall

“ Margaret I. Weyhrich

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM

“ Hi Bob :)\nI was sorry to hear that your mom past away. I could not come out for the service, but remembered everyone in prayer. I will be going up to see Aunt Whitey and I will print a copy of the obituary for her. Take care and God bless. Lets try and stay in contact by email.\n\n\nMonty##imported-begin##Monty Henry##imported-end##

April 26, 2011 at 11:45 AM