

Marion R. McKibbon

December 18, 1920 - June 4, 2013

Marion R. McKibbon, 92, of Norfolk died Tuesday, June 4, 2013, at Faith Regional Health Services. Services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at Stonacek Funeral Chapel with burial at Prospect Hill Cemetery and visitation 9-11 a.m. before service on Saturday. The Rev. Dillon Hess will officiate. She was born Dec. 18, 1920, at Battle Creek to Larry and Clara (Schacker) Marshall. She graduated from Pierce High School in 1939. She married Jack McKibbon March 11, 1947. After marriage she was a housewife at home here in Norfolk. While Jack was alive, Marion and Jack enjoyed traveling, especially to Colorado and the Black Hills. Marion particularly liked Pikes Peak, the Garden of the Gods and Colorado Springs. She enjoyed to cook and made a delicious lemon meringue pie and garlic spaghetti. Marion loved flowers and plants of all types. When she received flowers and plants as gifts, she always tried to make them grow, bloom and live as long as possible. She was also always interested in other people's flowers and would ask, "Are your lilacs blooming yet?" or "How are your peonies doing?" She also liked to visit relatives on the weekends in Battle Creek and Pierce and seeing her old house in Pierce. Every year on Memorial Day, Marion would make a special effort to make sure that all her relatives would get something on their graves. While at the Pierce Manor, Marion loved to be outside and go on long walks throughout the park and town. She was baptized in the Methodist church. Survivors include son Terry and wife Valerie McKibbon of Norfolk; six grandchildren, Sara, Amy, Amanda, Joe, Christopher, Nicholas; five great-grandchildren, Ethan, Hailey, Braden, Allie, Jacob; two brothers, Arthur Marshall and Richard Marshall, both of Pierce. She was preceded in death by husband Jack McKibbon in July 1963, parents Larry and Clara, sister Myrna Bargstadt. Recorded hymns will be "Heaven's Now My Home", "You Raise Me Up", "Amazing Grace." Casket bearers will be Joe McKibbon, Christopher McKibbon, Nicholas McKibbon, Ethan McKibbon, Braden Forney, Jacob Jacobsen.
