

Marjorie A. Heusinger

November 4, 1925 - April 11, 2019

NORFOLK -- Funeral service for Marjorie A. Heusinger, 93, of Norfolk will be held at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, April 16, 2019 at the Community Bible Church in Norfolk with Rev. Arin Hess officiating. Interment will be at the Hillcrest Memorial Park Cemetery, Norfolk. Visitation will be 4:00-7:00 p.m., Monday, also at the Community Bible Church. Memorials may be made in her memory to the Community Bible Church, 401 E. Park Ave., Norfolk, NE 68701.

Stonacek Funeral Chapel in Norfolk is in charge of the arrangements.

Marjorie Anne Fleeer Heusinger, 93, went to her heavenly home on Thursday, April 11, while at Community Pride Care Center in Battle Creek. She was born to Walter and Anna (Langenberg) Fleeer on November 4, 1925, in rural Hoskins. Marjorie was privileged to have parents who taught her to learn, to work, and to play. After schoolwork, milking cows, feeding animals, cultivating corn, cooking and sewing, she cuddled baby animals and played evening games with her father or brother, Walter, Jr.

Marjorie graduated from Hoskins High School in 1942, at the age of 16. That fall she began a career that would span the next 70 years of her life, teaching boys and girls. Her first assignments were the one-room schools of District 22 and 41 in Wayne County. From 1947- 1954, she taught at Grant School in Norfolk, and served for a time as president of the Norfolk Public Schools Faculty Club. During the summers she took classes at Wayne State College, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1950, and completing requirements for a lifetime teaching certificate in 1959.

She married Rev. George Heusinger on June 27, 1954, at the Peace Church outside Norfolk. They were married almost 65 years. She ably assisted her husband as he ministered to three rural congregations each week, the Theophilus Church near Wayne, Immanuel Church near Winside, and the Peace Church. In 1959, they moved into Norfolk and began the Community Bible Church. For close to 60 years, she held a monthly ladies Bible study, directed the Sunday School and Vacation Bible School, baked birthday cakes for senior citizens and others, and counselled women and young people. After moving into Norfolk, Marjorie once again taught in the Norfolk Public Schools, providing classroom relief for 2 or 3 principals each day, as well as substitute teaching. This she did until 1979, when she began teaching kindergarten through second grade at Park Avenue Christian School in Norfolk. After becoming principal, she just taught the kindergarteners. She stopped teaching full-time in 2001, at age 76, but volunteered her time to provide remedial help for students a couple hours each day for 10 more years. She was firm, but gentle, and her students loved her. Marjorie was honored with the Kiwanis Outstanding Elementary Teacher Award, a lifetime membership in the Jefferson PTA, and numerous nominations to Who's Who in America's Teachers.

Family was very important to her. She rose early every morning to read her Bible and pray for each of her children, and later her grandchildren. At every holiday meal, she would gather the family around so they could hold hands and sing, "God Is So Good." Then she would serve her specialty recipes that everyone so loved. Afterwards, she thoroughly enjoyed games, laughing, and talking together. She had time and a listening ear for all, from the youngest to the oldest.

Marjorie is survived by her husband, George, and their three children, Anne Marie (Arin) Hess of Norfolk, Lynn (Kathleen) Heusinger of Lafayette, Indiana, and Joel (Renee) Heusinger of Lincoln. The Heusingers have 12 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, and her brother, Walter Fleer, Jr.

Marjorie was a lover of roses, often taking a bouquet from her garden to friends that were ill or shut-in. She loved her family, but above all, she loved her LORD. It was her joy to share the love of Jesus with each young child that came through her classroom and each friend God brought across her path. "Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her. Many women have done virtuously, but you excel them all."

Casket bearers will be Kellen Heusinger, Leighton Heusinger, Logan Heusinger, Jonathan Hess, Luke Hess, Brett Wilson, Dustin Rogers, and Jeremy Caudill.

Condolences may be expressed to the family on-line at www.stonacekfuneralchapel.com.

“ My deepest condolences to you, Pastor Heusinger. You and Mrs. Heusinger were such a comfort to me, to my family when our father passed, you have my gratitude for that. But Mrs. Heusinger was one of the finest teachers I had the privilege of knowing, not just as one of her students, but as my son's kindergarten teacher some years later. Her words of wisdom still impact my life every day. One of the greatest things she taught me was how keeping a positive spirit impacts our abilities to go far and achieve much. She was a dear soul, and I can only imagine how many other lives, more than people probably realize, she impacted in great ways. While I share in your sorrow, I also share in the joy and the honor of knowing this dear woman.

“ One cannot find a more beautiful soul! I am happy for her to be face to face with God and no longer suffering the pains of this world. She had a positive influence on anyone she came in contact with. I loved her as a kindergarten teacher as well as a friend! She always lit up my spirit with her warm smile. It was the overflowing amount of love in her eyes and smile! Her impact will live on through many generations. I am blessed to have known such a great lady. Thank you to her family for sharing her time with us! I love you all!

“ I am so thankful to the Lord for the privilege of having known Pastor and Mrs. Heusinger. Mrs. Heusinger was an amazing lady with so many talents. She was a wonderful teacher and loved each child in her class room. I Praise the Lord for this. I so looked forward to the Ladies monthly meetings at CBC and her Bible teaching when I was a member of CBC. She was such a prayer warrior for her family and her church family. It truly was an encouragement as well as a blessing just to be around her. I too loved her smile. 😊 She will be missed, but I'm so happy for her that she is with the Lord. My prayers are with her dear family members. I do pray the the Holy Spirit will give them all comfort at this time and draw each one closer to Himself in the days ahead. God bless you all.

“ I am grateful to the Lord for allowing me the privilege of having known Pastor & Mrs. Heusinger for more than 40 years when her husband had me come to Community Bible Church for one of my earliest meetings, even before I went into evangelism full-time. She was always a delight to be around with her beautiful smile and encouraging words. Barb and I always looked forward to our time with the family around the table for Sunday dinner. She will be missed here but welcomed Home in heaven. WHat a legacsy she leaves behind.

Upon moving to Hoskins in 1960, I knew Rev. and Mrs. Heusinger by reputation only. But when Joel was born, I met them and enjoyed getting to know them.. their combined ministries have been so meaningful to so many folks! Sympathies from both of us. .Mike and Pat Meierhenry
