Marlin Gansebom son of Willie C. and Christina (Kube) Gansebom was born at the family farm 1 ½ miles south of Osmond on October 11, 1926. He was baptized at Immanuel Lutheran Church on November 14, 1926 by Rev. Holstein. Marlin attended country school at District 42 for grades one to six. He attended Immanuel Lutheran School in Osmond for grades seven and eight. Was confirmed at Immanuel Lutheran Church on April 2, 1939 by Rev. Holstein. He attended Osmond High School, graduating with the class of 1943. Since these were war years, he stayed at home to help his father farm. On February 13, 1946 he was drafted into the United States Army, taking basic training at Lackland Air Base near San Antonio, Texas. This was followed by eleven weeks of Counter Intelligence School at Camp Holaberd near Baltimore, Maryland. He was then sent with the Occupational troops to Germany at Camp Oberusel near Marburg, Germany. He was given an honorable discharge from the army on March 26, 1947. Returning on a troop ship with 800 people aboard they hit a bad storm in the North Atlantic three days of waves up to 100 feet high. The storm subsided and they reached Fort Dix in New Jersey.

He then returned to the farm and was in partnership with his father. He was married to Clarice Frevert at Golgatha Lutheran Church southwest of Wausa, NE on April 13, 1952 with Rev. A. Oesch officiating. After a trip to visit relatives in Mobile, Alabama and the Gulf states, the couple moved into the home on the family farm 1 ½ miles south of Osmond. Marlin's parents, Willie and Christina Gansebom moved into a new house they built in Osmond. The couple established a fairly large livestock and crop business on the farm. Here they raised their children Ruth, Lynette, Alan and Larry all whom graduated from Osmond High School and went on to college. After 39 years on the farm they built a new house in Osmond, moving there in January of 1991. Larry and his wife Susan moved to the farm to continue the farm business. Marlin was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church all his life. He is also a member of the American Legion and the V.F.W in Osmond.

He is survived by his wife Clarice Gansebom for over 71 years of Osmond, his 4 children Ruth (Michael Bartunek of Bainbridge Island, WA, Lynette Colletta of Laguna Niguel, CA, Alan (Lisa) Gansebom of Naples, FL, Larry (Susan) Gansebom of Osmond, 8 grandchildren and spouses Jeffrey (Caitlin) Bartunek, Laura Bartunek, Matthew (Kristin) Colletta, Andrew Colletta, Alison (Alan) Laidler, Ariel (Matt) Wallace, Jenna Gansebom, Brandi Gansebom, 8 great grandchildren Wyatt and Juniper Bartunek, Olivia and Ella Colletta, Brock and Lilac Laidler, Meadow and River Wallace, one sister Faye Wangstrom of Yankton, S.D,
