

Mary E. Brande

January 23, 1921 - October 24, 2015

PIERCE — Inurnment for Mary Brande, 94, Norfolk, formerly of Pierce, will be at a later date at Prospect View Cemetery in Pierce under the direction of Stonacek Memorial Chapel. At her request, there will be no services. She died Saturday, Oct. 24, 2015, at Edgewood Vista in Columbus. The daughter of Carl Burton and Keziah Fedlia Porter Brande was born Jan. 23, 1921, at home in Pierce. When Mary was born, she was welcomed by a two-year-old sister, Dorothy Anne. She attended Pierce Public Schools, Doane College, University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Western Illinois University in Macomb, Ill., graduating with her bachelor's degree in education.

While attending Western Illinois University she met June Sebree, and they were companions for 57 years until June's death in 2004. Mary taught school in Illinois for over 20 years until she retired due to poor health. She and June then began an antique book, magazine and poster business out of their home in Macomb, building their small business. After June's death, Mary returned to Pierce. In September of 2004, she retired to The Meadows in Norfolk, living there 11 years until her poor health required more care, and she moved to Edgewood Vista in Columbus on Sept. 1, 2015. She resided there for seven weeks before her death. Survivors include her nephew, William Fogle and spouse Marilyn Wun-Fogle of Potomac Md., their children and spouses, Rebecca Anne Wun Fogle Borah and Jon Borah of Brooklyn, N.Y., and William Woodrow Brande Fogle and spouse Kim Fogle of Pierce; a niece, Mary Jane Fogle of Pierce; great-nephew Jon Edward Sandelin and spouse

Cindy and great-nephew and nieces Cole, Savannah and Piper Sandelin of West Point, Va., She was preceded in death by her mother, Kezzie in 1929; her father, Carl in 1958; a sister, Dorothy Brande Fogle; June Sebree in 2004; and a great-nephew, S. Troy Sandelin.

Online condolences can be expressed at www.stonacekfuneralchapel.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary E. Brande

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM