MAMA,
You were given these children - you. No one else.
You were given these children because you are who they need. You have the soul to love them even on their hard days. You have the motivation and love to give these children everything they need. You have the heart to wake up every morning and do it all over again, even when you are exhausted. You have the smile that they crave and the touch to make everything okay. You are their sunshine and their comfort. You are there and they are yours.
Mama.

“ Mom, it's Patty and I have finally long overdue found the right time and place to begin to grieve and mourn you. I'm of course a few years late, sorry for that. I have so much to say and will only get a small piece off my chest. I never thought you were going to get what you deserved from me, because of always being gone. That I would never mourn you, because I have never had my first good cry over your loss. My loss. Our loss... I will never forget the day or time, where I heard of this tragic. Mother we had something so special for a mother/daughter. And it was/is ours. Full of tears now... I am sorry, so sorry. I miss you, I Love you, and I Hurt for you. All the above. I know in my heart that you are with the good Lord and Savior. That helps. So grateful I found this on Stonacek's Funeral Website. A blessing for me, your daughter, to have a place to come express all my worries and fears. Love YOU MOM. I love you deeply and miss you like crazy. Love Patty

“ To the Buol family,

My thoughts, prayers and sympathy are with all of you as you mourn the death of your dear mother. A grade school friend of mine sent me the obituary from the Norfolk paper.

Mary and I are first cousins. She and Bobby and I had such fun growing up together in Wausa. I loved going to the house on the farm. Your mom was quite shy as a little girl. We have lived in Kansas City for 55 years so Mary and I did not see each other many times as adults. I regret that! I know she was a loving mom, a very hard worker and had a kind heart.

May she now rest in peace.

“ My heart felt prayers of sympathy to you all. I spent many hours of my childhood with Noni at your house. I remember the ladies sitting around the table drinking coffee gossiping & laughing. I always enjoyed Mary's laughter. Her cinnamon rolls were the best of all our moms. I learned to change diapers, feed a bottle to a baby & all that stuff b/c if we came over to hang out we helped out too. We learned responsibility b/c Mary allowed or expected us to be responsible. For that I am thankful. May your loving memories of Mary always be in your hearts. \
