Myrna passed away on Tuesday, October 4, 2022 at her residence, rural Norfolk, surrounded by her family. The Stonacek Funeral Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Myrna was born on December 9, 1940 in Denver, Colorado to Carl and Helen (Wiederspan) Schafer. She attended grade school at District 21, and graduated from Culbertson High School in 1959. She then went to McCook Cosmetology School. She married Kenneth Amen on April 7, 1963 at the Methodist Church in Culbertson, NE. After their marriage, Myrna and Ken moved to Norfolk. They lived on the family farm now known as Amen Dairy. To this union they had 4 children; Connie, Karen, Michael and Mark. They had recently celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary in April.

Myrna enjoyed her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved cooking, baking, and anyone who came to the house knew there would be a cookie or pie waiting. She loved taking care of her home but her love for the outdoors was more. She took great pride in her children going to many of their school functions. She would spend her evenings embroidering and crocheting if she wasn't at a ballgame of some sort. Ken and Myrna enjoyed traveling, they took a cruise to the Bahamas, several bus tours, they toured Hawaii, Universal Studios, Las Vegas, and traveled to Germany to visit family. She was member of the Sunny Del Homemakers Extension Club, Nebraska Dairy Women's Association, and the Victory Road Evangelical Free Church where she held the following positions: Deaconess, Fellowship Leader, Sunday School Teacher, and church cleaner for many years.

Survivors include her spouse Kenneth Amen of Norfolk, children Connie Amen of Wisner, Karen (Hans) Ruge of Norfolk, Mike (Tammy) Amen of Norfolk, Mark (Kathy) Amen of Norfolk, grandson that was raised like a son Travis (Jennifer) Amen, 10 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, sister Susan Carlson of Norfolk, sister-in-law Joanne Schafer, several aunts, uncles, nieces, and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents Carl and Helen, brother Ronald Schafer, brother-in-law Delane Carlson, father-in-law Arthur Amen, mother-in-law Alma Amen, brother and sister-in-law Delbert and Betty Amen.

“ I'll never forget her wonderful hugs, the way she talked to me like I was part of her family. She always told me I was always welcome to come over. That meant alot to me even as a young teenager and again when I played softball. Very sorry for the family's loss. Thinking of you all.

“ When we butchered our own hog and I had a fresh ham in the freezer I could not find a recipe for fresh ham. I called Myrna and she very respectfully told me “it is called Pork, cook like a pork roast”. I was so thankful for Myrna and am grateful for her encouragement. Peace to her memory.
