“ I work for the USPS and worked several months in the Hoskins Post Office. Myron would be in to get his mail almost daily and always had a smile on his face. Recently he came in to the post office and told me it was his birthday, I replied mine is the 13th. Myron came in the next day with a donut for me and my coworker. We will miss him and his daily visits. My thoughts and prayers for his wife Luetta and family.

May your sadness be dulled by the celebration of the Savior’s birth, knowing that the Lord is true to His Word in granting Mike release from this imperfect world to the eternal joys of heaven.
