

Pamela Jean Dennis

October 14, 1953 - June 2, 2012

PLAINVIEW -- Pamela J. Dennis, 58, Plainview, died Saturday, June 2, 2012, at Osmond General Hospital after a year-long battle with cancer. Services will be at Our Savior Lutheran Church, Plainview, at 10:30 a.m. Thursday with burial in Pleasant View Cemetery. Visitation will be 3-8 p.m. Wednesday at Stonacek Funeral Chapel, Osmond. The Rev. Nathan Metzger will officiate. She was born Oct. 14, 1953, to Bud and Lenny (Meyer) Dennis. Pamela was born in Osmond, where she attended St. Mary's School through the eighth grade and later graduated from Osmond High School in 1971. Pam was an excellent volleyball player and a member of the Pep Club. After graduation she attended Lincoln School of Commerce and worked at numerous businesses, including the Nebraska State Capitol, Denver Bell Telephone Co. and Lind & Gubbels. She also flagged for Theisen Construction Co., worked at the Pierce County Courthouse and folded clothes for Jim Peschel on Wednesday nights at the local laundromat. Pam also held employment positions at Dale Electronics and Sherwood Medical in Norfolk. Pam was married to John Schaefer, and they lived northeast of Plainview where Pam helped with the farming. She was an active member of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Plainview and was a member of various organizations within the church. Pam's family always came first in her life, and she enjoyed attending their various sporting events and extra curricular activities. Pam was an outstanding cook, dancer and crocheted beautifully. "We will all miss you so much, Pam. We were very blessed to have you in our lives." Survivors include

“ May Pam find peace in heaven and hopefully there are no naughty little girls with toy mice to scare her. I sure had fun with Pam when she would come to my parents bowling alley to cheer on the guys from her usual spot behind the shoe stand. We will all miss her.##imported-begin##Brittani Pospisil##imported-end##
