Pat was born on June 18, 1929 in Battle Creek, NE to Roy and Margaret (Hoffley) Murphy. She would attend Battle Creek High School for a couple years before helping on the family farm. She met the love of her life, Gilbert Klug and the two were married on March 29, 1948 in Norfolk, NE. The two of them were members of St. Paul’s Lutheran Church in Norfolk.

Pat was an excellent cook; she knew recipes in her head and had nothing written down. She was good at sewing and even made her daughter’s wedding dresses and several others. She loved gardening, canning, working on the flowers in her garden. She loved golfing, bowling, and camping. But most of all she loved her grandkids and great grandkids. Pat was also very active in the community. She volunteered for meals on wheels, calling people for the blood mobile, and making chili or chicken noodle soup.

Pat is survived by her children, Linda (David) Thoms of Norfolk, Lynette Klug of Norfolk, Larry Klug of Norfolk, and LeeAnn (Rick) Cherington of Yankton, SD. 8 grandkids, Shane Klug, Brent Thoms, Brandon Klug, Casey Cherington, Andy Thoms, Katie Pfeiffer, Ryan Thoms, and Chris Cherington. 15 great grandkids and 1 great great grandchild. Numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

“ I have fond memories of Aunt Patti when we would come visit family in Nebraska. It was a blessing to be able to watch the funeral service online Monday. I was especially touched when everyone said the Apostles creed together. Lifting you all up in prayer asking The Lord to comfort you as you go through the mourning process. But I am also praising Him because she is dancing in His presence now. Hugs and Love, Janet Bare Tucker

“ My family lived in Arlington; so 'back in the day' we had family reunions in Norfolk, as Pat's husband Gib was my cousin. Since my Dad's death in '79, they kind of stopped; however, we got to know that side of the family through those reunions. ! I loved going to Norfolk to meet up with Pat and the girls; and sometimes Larry would be there. I even called her a few times to see how she was doing. Memories will always be there; and my sincere sympathy to all of Pat's family!! Doni

“ Patti was such a sweet person. I remember her being a seamstress, which interested me. The last time I saw her she was walking her dog over by where one of the boys lived and I talked with her. She was a good mother and grandmother and mother-in-law to my brother and a good wife to her husband. I loved her laugh. I hear it when I hear Lynette laugh. 95 years was quite a milestone. She left a great legacy and family behind her. Hugs to you all. And prayers to heal from your loss. God bless you all. Love Cheryl Cherington

“ We were so sorry to hear your mom has passed away, Linda. I remember way back when you and I worked for her to help serve food at big banquets and parties at Hotel Madison many years ago. I remember her being very talented at sewing clothes for you also. She was always such a nice person. Jeanette and Bill Moser
