“ Georgia, Jen, Rachel and families: I have wonderful memories of Aunt Phyllis including her delicious red cake, her love for her puppies and birds, how she introduced me to lima beans and always made them for me when I stayed overnight, her infectious laugh, how she introduced the Cox girls to tossed salad, her immaculately clean house and how she loved my Vermont born husband. The last time we saw her she called us by name which was a joy and I reminded her of her bowling days with Dad and Mom. I asked her if she remembered what she said when she was the lead off bowler and got a strike. She said "No I don't" and I told her she'd turn around, look at her team, clap her hands and say "Now we go!". She got a big smile on her face and clapped her hands just like old times. Made my heart so happy! Well dear Godmother....."Now we go!" off to heaven to reunite with those you love. Till we meet again.....Janet
