Rachele L. Pospisil was born to Lewis & Hilda (Vyhlidal) Pospisil on July 14, 1961. She graduated from Pierce High School in 1979. She received an Associate's Degree from Northeast Tech in 1980. Rachele was employed at Cable One in Norfolk, The Boys & Girls Home in Norfolk and the Department of Motor Vehicles in Madison. She was currently employed at the Madison County Veterans Service Office in Norfolk. Association Hall of Fame Award in 2008. Rachele received an Outstanding Law Enforcement and Volunteer Award in June of 2008. Rachele was a volunteer for MADD. She was very involved in her church and was involved with Bible Study and Sunday School. Rachele was instrumental in raising her four nieces and nephews and was a mom to all of them and lived her life to ensure that she gave them unconditional love. She celebrated their successes, supported them through their challenges, and watched proudly as they grew into adults with families of their own, whom she also deeply loved. Her greatest joy in life was being there for her family. Rachele's life was a life full of love, not only for her family, in whom she found a full life, but she was also a friend to so many in the community. She loved fiercely and would often be the first to step up and help anyone whenever she could.

“ When we were in high school, our English teacher wanted groups of us to create a presentation of some sort. We made a video mocking “Charlie’s Angels”. If memory serves me right, Shelly played Bozley. So much fun acting like characters from the popular show back then!
