“ Rick was our maintenance man at Boulevard Village but he was also a friend to us and so many more there . He gave it his all and never made anyone feel like it was a bother. We appreciated all he did for us. He never had a gruff word for anyone who needed his help. God has a special person by his side. We were blessed to have been able to know Rick as a friend

“ Rick was a good friend here in Huron. He was always very proud of his family... wife and kids. I could always get great advice from Rick, honest and reliable. What a kind wonderful man who will be greatly missed. I'm sure he will continue to watch over his loved ones. Your pain is done ❤️

“ He was a good friend to us. Being a great contractor, he built and added a lot to our house and additional rooms. He mentored Dylan, our grandson, for a while, who also wanted to be in that line of work. So talented in his field, everyone knew him for his precise work, so he was always busy. Many happy and fun memories. He will be truly missed. God bless and hold him.

I am so very sad to hear of Ricks passing. He was like family to me as his parents had a double wedding with my parents and there was a lifelong friendship between them. That made his family of Rick, Deb, and Terry all kind of like cousins growing up. Times past and we grew up and went different ways. When Rick started work with his dad in the construction business, I chose them to build my house. There were times that when something did not go as planned Dick or Rick would say, well it's good enough for bridge work and we all would laugh and Rick usually would correct the issue. I am still living in that house today. They built it in 1983. It is a constant reminder of Rick and his dad. I am older than Rick, so I have known him all his life he was truly a good person in heart towards everybody he met. I will miss him greatly. Rest easy now Rick, you earned it.
