“ Sending our deepest sympathies to the entire Woslager family. I know our family has so many memories of going out the farm and just having fun we all grew up together until life takes you in different directions. Ron was a great person and so funny at times He may be gone from your daily life but the memories will forever keep him with you. Sending hugs of comfort to each of you.

“ My husband Bob Sparr considered Ron his best friend. Now they are together in Heaven. The three of us worked together for many years at the Goodyear Plant. He made the best dill pickles around. Bob looked forward to the times they would go fishing or sometimes hunting. He was a great friend loved his family and fought a tough battle with cancer. My prayers are with Jean and the family. I'm so thankful she has the boys to look after her. May she come home soon.

“ Ron was always pleasant to chat with when I would see him around town. My heart hurts for his family. Jesus carries us through hard times. Jesus bears a great load of Ron's family and friends over this grief. Look forward to heavenly reunion.
