“ We have so many special memories but one of our fondest was a trip we took with he and Betty, and Pete Rogers in Hubbard's green RV to the National Farm Show in Iowa. Betty and I sat in the back and read and enjoyed listening to the guys up front talking farming...lots of laughter and warm memories. Another was a lovely trip to Hawaii with he and Jess & Jean Wingler. We were staying in Kona, but packed our toothbrushes and pjs and all took a plane for the day and night in Waikiki. Lee rented a surf board and we did well just to sit on it...such fun. Lee never met a stranger. He certainly put his all into the things he enjoyed doing. Our deepest condolences to Joy Lee, Steve, Betty and their families. Love & prayers, Keith & Sharon

Thank you for all the wonderful times.....tracking down the family tree.....dropping in on relatives, visiting libraries, and finding old homesteads! Helping me to understand why things happened. The photos of you
