Scott Aaron Rogers was born in Omaha, Nebraska to Dean and Sharon Rogers. He was the first of three children. Scott was an inquisitive boy, always ready for a new adventure.

Scott's passion, since childhood, for model trains grew into a hobby and an opportunity to make connections with people and to make lasting friendships. Following a trucking career Scott enjoyed repairing bicycles and started a business which he called "Scott's Bikes." He was a hero to the neighbor children. In addition to bike repair Scott cleared driveways with snowblowers he had refurbished. Scott saw his businesses as a way to help others and make a little money.

Most of all Scott was an advocate for Jesus Christ. He loved his Lord and Savior Jesus and passionately told others. Scott put his trust in Jesus to save him from his sins. "God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid, for the Lord God is my strength and my song; He also has become my salvation.”

Isaiah 12:2

Scott was preceded in death by grandparents Bert and Virginia Osland; Cecil Rogers; and Dorothy (Lowell) VanDorin. He is survived by his mother Sharon (Kenny) Tromp of Plattsburg, MO; father Dean (Nancy) Rogers of Jefferson; sister Jody (Doug) Zavadil of Kansas City, MO; sister Deanna (Don) Dowell of Smithville, MO; step-sister Kayla Lawrence of Pella, IA; and nieces and nephews Erin (Eldridge) Zavadil and Bryce (Julia) Zavadil of Kansas City, MO and Sean (Mikala) Goldsborough and TJ Goldsborough of Smithville, MO; Rylie (Zach) Noel; Addie Lawrence of Pella, IA and many friends.

I didn't know Scott very long but I did consider him a friend. When I moved he purchased my Grandfather Clock and also a few bikes. I had hoped to go E bike riding with him this summer. Scott will be greatly missed.
