“ I had the pleasure of working with Shirley at good ole Sherwoods! I loved my Sherwood's family! For a while, I lived down the street from her too. She's the one that encouraged me to start giving blood! I'm 12 gallons now! She's one of the sweetest, kindest people I know! Fly high Shirley!!!!

My Aunt Shirley. She was one of the best! She taught me so much was always there for me. I spent a lot of time with her when I was younger, helping with the kids, cleaning house, cooking for picnics, bowling for her, walking uptown to go shopping or to the circus. I will miss her so much. She even got to know my friends over the years as well . She was a friendly, loving person. Sometimes people thought we were sisters. I will miss her so much! I will see you soon at the resurrection that is my hope. We can spend eternity together with our family. Those will be some picnics ! Love you family. Cheryl Cherington
