

Stella Sue Cramer

July 29, 2011 - July 29, 2011

LINDSAY -- Services for Stella Sue Cramer will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Holy Family Catholic Church here with burial at the parish cemetery. Visitation will be 5-8 p.m. Friday with a prayer service at 7 p.m. at Stonacek Funeral Chapel, Norfolk. The Rev. James Novotny will officiate. She entered Heaven July 29, 2011, at 11:30 a.m. She was born July 29, 2011, at 9:30 a.m. at Lincoln to Jordec and Bridget (Krueger) Cramer and was baptized at birth in the Catholic faith. Stella was born at Bryan LGH East in Lincoln. She was born with blue eyes, a fair amount of dark curly hair, a cute little nose and long fingers and toes. Stella made lots of noise with cooing and liked to stick out her tongue and blow bubbles. She blessed us with squeezing our fingers, getting hugs from big brother Eliot, snuggling with mommy and daddy, being told "I love you" over and over again, and being held by all of the family. We were blessed to have two hours with Stella Sue where we squeezed in a lifetime of love. Stella then passed peacefully in the arms of her mommy while daddy held her hand. Even before she was born, Stella touched many lives and will continue to affect people through their memories of her short life. She will live on in six others with the donation of her liver to babies in need. She was a member of Lindsay Holy Family Catholic Parish. Stella is the beloved daughter of Jordec and Bridget (Wiese) Cramer and little sister of Eliot, all currently of Lincoln. Grandparents are Germaine and Lyle Krueger of Norfolk, John and Jodi Cramer of Hastings, and great-grandma is Eleanor Schaecher of Norfolk. She was joined in Heaven by grandfather Melvin Wiese of Lindsay.
