“ I never met Susie in person but I feel as if I know her. I took her place temporarily at AWG while she was on sick leave, and everyone I talked to asked about Susie. The word I hear used the most when describing her is "bubbly". She made quite the impression on everyone who's life she touched. We have all lost someone special and I'm sorry I missed the opportunity to know her.

“ I am gonna miss Susie! I always enjoyed her cards and recipes she'd send and how her letters got more frequent during my cancer diagnosis. She filled a hole in my heart when my mom Lee Fee passed with phone calls, cards, letters and love.
Sending lots of prayers for peace, comfort and strength.

“ I remember my first day at Affiliated Foods Midwest. Susie was the first person I remember meeting because she made me feel so welcomed to the group. Susie always wore a big smile and was so cheerful. She made me laugh so hard when she shared stories of deer hunting with Randy. Susie was special and her life made a big impact for the better.
