Our deep condolences to family and friends of Teresa. I just recently read about her too late. Such a beautiful tribute to her, she was loved by many and touched many hearts, including mine. I cried watching this video. Keep her memories always, and try to think she was promoted to a new journey, and is now an angel! watching over all of you. Sandy, Willard, Shelly, Chris, Doug, John, Makayla, and anyone else I might have missed. I'm a very old friend, who bowled with Teresa, enjoyed her and Chris's company at the races, worked with Sandy at Seiferts and Lloyd's, my boys called Sandy "Mom" at times, I'm just so shocked, my heart aches for the family. I'm so very sorry. You have our sympathies, Rest in Peace, sweet Teresa. Love, Robert and Scherry Koch

“ Oh the memories we made at the bowling alley! I will never forget you friend. You were a great friend even though we didn't see each other maybe every couple of months. I will always remember the proud look on your face when you would talk about Makayla. She is your legacy and, though it will be hard, she will still make you proud. So many will miss you girl but we know you are in the arms of our Lord and walking with those gone before us. Many thoughts and prayers to the family! ----- Annette Palmer

“ I remember every Tuesday and Thursday night I would see your smiling face at the bowling alley 😊 What I would learn years later that no matter what kind of a day you were having you always had time to catch up even if it had been years since we last talked. I am so grateful that I talked to you just less than a month ago for a very long time. Your family is in my prayers. Until we meet again my friend 😞

“ I JUST REMEMBER GROWING UP AS A KID ON 9TH STREET AND ALWAYS PLAYING WITH ALL YOU HART KIDS. WE HAD SO MUCH FUN. SO MANY GREAT MEMORIES. PLAYING BARBIES, RIDING OUR BIKES, TEASING DOUG. YOUR MOM YELLING WHEN IT WAS TIME TO COME HOME. WE ALL KNEW JUST HOW FAR TO PUSH IT. YOU WERE IN BIG TROUBLE IF SHE SAID YOUR FULL NAMES. TAKING COMFORT KNOWING YOU ARE RESTING SAFE NOW IN THE ARMS OF GOD. PREPARING A PLACE FOR ALL OF US STILL WAITING TO COME.
