“ To Tom's Family - We were sorry to read of Tom's passing. Tom delivered our Omaha World Herald newspaper for a number of years. I don't think he ever missed a delivery to our house. The papers were always in the driveway and they usually were there before we got up. I think I only got to visit with him a couple of times, again, because he almost always got the paper delivered before we arose. We have not had that good of delivery service since Tom had to give up the route. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers.
