“ As a retired hairdresser I spent many classes with Trish in Omaha. Needless to say we had some fun times. Her laugh is one that I can hear even now. We were neighbors in Pierce when our kids were young. My youngest daughter loved all crawling little animals including snakes. She would put one in a bucket and knock on Trish's door while the other kids hid around the corner to watch her reaction. She would open the door and scream at Laura, get that thing out of here. The kids would take off laughing. Oh I loved her. She was a beautiful and wonderful lady. Rest in peace dear friend. God's blessings to her family.

“ I have nice memories of Trish from her days working at a Norfolk barber shop. Her joyful personality was infectious and always on display. My wife Marie was an employee at the same shop and seeing Trish was always a highlight. My best to husband Randy and all the family. May the almighty comfort all the family and friends during this difficult time. Blessings to all.
