Vicki passed on Friday, December 26, 2025 at her residence in Pierce, Nebraska. Stonacek Funeral Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Vicki was born on October 11, 1948 in Quimby, Iowa to Sylvester and Mary (Brown) Dungan. Vicki married Daniel “Dan” Roepke on Oct. 25, 1969 at a bowling alley in Sioux City. Vicki and her family lived in Norfolk, NE, from 1981 until 2016. Vicki worked at Lou’s in Norfolk for 18 years as a bookkeeper/cashier. In 2016, Vicki and Dan moved to Branson, MO, their favorite vacation destination. Vicki later moved to Pierce.

Vicki’s favorite color was purple and she loved lilacs. She would play solitaire on her phone while watching NCIS. Vicki loved working and helping others and would paint her nails and was happy to show them off. She enjoyed cooking for her family and teaching her grandkids how to cook and bake. Grandma loved being involved with everyone no matter how far she was. The holiday seasons were important to Vicki, especially Christmas. She loved having her great-grandkids over during the summer. Vicki was a problem solver, no matter what – she was there to help and support her loved ones.

Vicki is survived by her children Tamara Roepke, Todd Roepke, Donald (Valarie) Bermel, sister Sally (Terry) Mercado, brother Dick (Mary) Dungan, sister Twyla (Joe) Card, brother Pat (Tiff) Donaldson, 17 grandchildren, and 30 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Daniel Roepke in 2022, parents Sylvester and Mary Dungan, sisters Mary Ellen and Donna, brother Dennis Dungan, granddaughter Jessica and grandson Johnathon, great-grandchildren Tennison and Sawyer Rose.

“ Prayers and condolences to Vickie's family for their loss. Although I'm her cousin (on the Brown side) we didn't see each other very often. My brother, Mickeal, and Vicki were closer and shared more life together than I did. However, I really enjoyed the few times Vicki and I had together. May she be at peace with Jesus in Heaven; and happy to see Dan, her parents and other family members.
