“ My mom, who I shared with three brothers. A strong, loving, caring woman who always put others first. Thank you for Giving us your time, your energy, your love through the years. Thank you for making us laugh, and forgiving us when we were wrong And helping us along the way. You were giving and caring to all no matter the hour or the day. We will miss you and look forward to seeing you again one day because Jesus died for all That believe in him! Love you mom.
