

Zeeahna E. Wantoch

August 12, 2015 - December 20, 2015

NORFOLK — Services for Zeeahna E. Wantoch, infant, of Lincoln will be 1 p.m. Saturday at the Stonacek Funeral Chapel in Norfolk. Visitation will begin at 11 a.m. prior to the service. The Rev. Terry Buol will be officiating. She died Sunday, Dec. 20, 2015, at the Children's Hospital in Omaha.

Zeeahna was born on Aug. 12, 2015, at 8:32 a.m. at the Women's Methodist Hospital in Omaha to Seth and Brooke (Guenther) Wantoch. She was transferred to the Children's Hospital at 3 hours old with a congenital heart disease that would lead to quite an amazing battle. Even though Zeeahna went through numerous procedures, her attitude and spirit were never diminished. It was her drive and strong will that led the wonderful nurses to come up with her nickname "Little Warrior Princess Zeeahna." In the four months of her life, Zeeahna expressed the true meaning of determination and perseverance even when the odds seemed insurmountable. Zeeahna loved the color pink, music of all genres, cuddling and planning fishing trips with her daddy. No fish would be able to refuse her master angling skills her daddy taught her. Zeeahna will live with her family spiritually forever in their hearts and souls. Survivors are her parents, Seth and Brooke Wantoch of Lincoln; grandparents Leon Guenther of Pierce, Beth Guenther of Plainview, Joel and Estelle Wantoch of Norfolk; great-grandparents Bob and Amber Block of Wausa, Rose Guenther of Crofton and Verona Wantoch of Norfolk. She was preceded in death by her great-grandfathers, Clarence Guenther and Otto Wantoch. Condolences may be expressed to the family at www.stonacekfuner
